

The Queenslander Pictorial.

FOR THE RED CROSS

QUEEN STREET
TRANS-FORMED INTO FAIRY-LAND
ON JULY 27.

W. T. Threlk
phot.

RED CROSS WEEK IN BRISBANE.

The Grand
Pageant
"Australia" in the Majestic Theatre.

The Audience.

Photographed
by F. G. Smith.

Public Library
6 Ave.

RED CROSS PARADE IN BRISBANE.

Lady Godolphin leading the procession of women.

The Governor and the State Commandant of the recruiting team.

General view of the long procession.

Band of boys leading the female children.

Red Cross kitchen workers.

The Italy Battalion.

Marchers of the V.A.C.

BREKIDDA'S GREAT RED CROSS EFFORT - FRIDAY'S FAIR.

The Governor declares the fair open.

The Red Cross Executive Staff.

A general view of Queen's Street.

Another general view.

General view of Queen's Street from the Treasury Building.

Red Cross Headquarters stall.

The many turns - Lady Gwendolyn, handing out collected money to collectors on Saturday.

SOME DETAILS OF RED CROSS STREET

One of the Brisbane Trimmings
Branch, Nov. 11th

South Brisbane Branch

Georgetown Branch

Winston Branch

Indooroopilly Branch

Red Cross Branch

The Quill stall

The American stall

WITH OUR BOYS ON THE WEST FRONT

A Field Company of Australian Engineers at their Company Headquarters.

Australian troops just before going into the line.

Australian officers and men.

THE TRANSFORMATION OF QUEEN-STREET-NOW IT WAS DONE.

MOVING TO THE FOREGROUND WITH IDEALS OF THE 19TH-CENTURY LEFT, HEINRICH

His assistants included Frankie Lewis, Louis H. B. Brown, Joseph L. Brown, Miriam Mehl and her son, and the following also received the Miriam Mehl Fellowship: David L. Jones, Ed. W. T. Lott, and D. M. Smith; Patricia R. Arnold and H. S. Lott; Susan Martin; and Phyllis J. E. Page, W. J. Brennan, E. A. Johnson, F. R. Lott, and J. S. Mehl.

- F. B. West, plasma